

Alternative to Activity 3 Presidential Pics (with no iPads)

While in the Presidential Gallery of the Eisenhower Museum, students will use photos to find and answer questions about exhibits.

Materials Needed

- copies of the Presidential Picture Hunt sheet
- pencils
- clipboards

1. Remind students that as President, Eisenhower was the leader of the Executive Branch of the government. In this activity they will be taking a closer look at his time as leader of the Executive Branch.
2. Inform students that the Presidential Gallery begins at the exhibit of Ike and Mamie's inaugural clothing, and ends when Eisenhower passed the presidential torch to John F. Kennedy. The symbol to the right is found throughout the Presidential Gallery.
3. Hand out the Presidential Picture Hunt sheet.
4. Students have approximately 20 minutes to complete their picture hunt in the Presidential Gallery. Be sure to tell students to watch their time limit and meet in the lobby when time runs out.

