

2. DOGS Hero Hounds

Number/Type	Description
1.1 ARTIFACT	Technical Manual No. 10-396, “War Dogs” Training manual for soldier dogs. * Encourage students to consider the important role dogs play in war.
1.2 PHOTO	August 19, 1942 Publicity Photo Clyde Porter presents his dog “Junior” to Dogs for Defense. The U.S. Army received over 20,000 dogs during World War II from owners such as little Clyde. * Encourage students to think about what is happening in the photo and read the sign in the background.
1.3 ARTIFACT	CHIPS Makes a Comeback 1944 three-page comic book story about Chips, a U.S. Army Dog in the World War II K-9 Corps.
1.4 ARTIFACT	Private Pepper of Dogs for Defense Book by Frances Cavanah from 1945 that tells the story of Pepper in the World War II K-9 Corps.
1.5 ARTIFACT	USMC FMF Pacific Dog Platoons Patch United States Marine Corps (USMC) Fleet Marine Force (FMF) worn by soldiers with dogs in their unit.

“For all their remarkable feats, they’re not only our heroes, they’re our pals. . . . When we see or read about how they’re involved in war, the war becomes a little closer. . . . The irony is that soldier dogs make war a little more human.”

-from Soldier Dogs by Maria Goodavage