

ROSE BLANCHE

BOOK NOTES

CLUES FROM THE ILLUSTRATIONS

Note differences in Rose’s appearance and the changes in the setting as the story progresses.

ROSE:

SETTING:

What can you infer?

WORDS THAT CREATE A FEELING

Jot down words that create a particular feeling and how they impact the story. Include any figurative language you hear or see.

ALLEGORY:

What could be an allegory for this story?

Allegory: A work that conveys a moral through symbolic characters and events.

SYMBOLISM

Describe the symbolism of the people or objects listed below.

Symbolism: A symbol can be a physical object, a character or an event that represents something more abstract.

Rose:

Mayor:

Army Trucks:

The Seasons:

Soldiers:

Children of the Camp: