

Albro Garrett

BIRTHPLACE: Brickley, Kentucky

SOLDIER DETAILS

DIVISION: Army, 134th Medical group

THEATER OF OPERATION: European

HONORED BY: Timothy King / Great Nephew

KILLED IN ACTION

BIOGRAPHY

Corporal Albro Garrett, a medic was killed 20 miles away from his brother PVT Brownloe Garrett who was with General Patton's 3rd Army, 5th Infantry Division. Both brothers were caught up in the Battle of the Bulge with Corporal Albro Garrett being killed when the German Luftwaffe bombed the field Hospital in Luxembourg. He was awarded the Purple Heart and is buried with honor at Henri-Chapelle American Cemetery at plot A, Row 2, Grave 14. American Battle Monuments Commission Honor Roll. Belgium; Northern France