CHECKED BY KARDER

Dear Allan:

I appreciate very much your calling my special attention to the Supreme Court's invitation to the Attorney General to file a brief or submit argument in the so-called school segregation cases. I know that this matter is having the Attorney General's close attention at this time, and that he will join with me in expressing appreciation to you for giving us your views.

At the present time the study of the law, pursuant to the Supreme Court's invitation, has not yet been completed.

Sincerely,

D. E.

The Honorable Allan Shivers
Governor of Texas
